| 1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?                    | No Response Received | No Response Received | John Gray, Running for Council of Harrison, Idaho. To help bring transparency to affairs, and to bring engineering planning skills to projects that seem vague.   | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 2. How could our city be improved? Please provide your top 2-3 ideas.   | No Response Received | No Response Received | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Establish proper balance of power between Council &amp; Mayor.</li> <li>Encourage public participation in public affairs.</li> <li>Answer questions like: What specific date will moratorium be lifted? When will water issues be resolved?</li> </ul> | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 3. What are your views on the rapid growth of North Idaho?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | I fear rapid development anywhere. People escaping unsatisfactory situations elsewhere may bring their problems with them.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 4. In your opinion what best serves the public, elected officials, or appointed officials?                          | No Response Received | No Response Received | Elected officials are less vulnerable to the corruption that appointments may breed.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 5. What improvements should be made to the city councils' role in the design and authorization of new developments? | No Response Received | No Response Received | The council should be educated with respect to technicalities and consequences of any development or change.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 6. In your opinion, should any services currently provided by the city be cut, eliminated, or privatized?           | No Response Received | No Response Received | One example: I do not understand the involvement in trash collection. This seems more appropriately privately between Trash Co & home owner.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 7. Do you believe access to city managed water and sewer should be increased to rural communities and why?          | No Response Received | No Response Received | Theoretically, it could reduce possible non-point source pollution, but the reality is, the City of Harrison needs to get it's own house in order before any such thought is considered.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |

|  | Will Butler          | Wayne Godsbey        | John Gray   | Dianna Lea John      | Brett Murdock        | Russell Riberich     | Charlie Shutt        | Vincent Wilcox       |
|--|----------------------|----------------------|---|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| 8. How do you plan on keeping a healthy reserve fund without increase taxes?   | No Response Received | No Response Received | Financial visibility & well planned order of project funding.   | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 9. What is your opinion of the increased push for affordable housing?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | Affordable housing is a national crisis that flows from tragically bad National Monetary policy. Worker housing in Harrison is difficult to find. | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 10. All too often local residents feel that their public comment is not taken into consideration when decisions are made that directly affect their daily lives and their property value. What would you suggest so that the public's best interests become a priority over builders and developers? | No Response Received | No Response Received | The public must get involved. They must pressure their councilmen to reflect on their concerns.   | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 11. What is your opinion of "Smart Cities" and how they apply to North Idaho?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | Terrible Idea. I resist any movement to a one world, controlled public, utopia of the Claus Schwab ideology.                                      | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 12. Should the concept of "equitable outcome" be implemented as a part of the city council's decision-making process? Why or why not?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | Absolutely not! America was built on allowing & encouraging success based on one's efforts. Biblically, if you don't work, you don't eat.         | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 13. Is there anything in your personal, business, or career life that would be a conflict of interest in your ability to serve the people of this city?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | Not that I am aware of.   | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
| 14. What is your background and why do you feel it qualifies you for this position?  | No Response Received | No Response Received | I was a mayor of a town of 1200 people for 4 years. I have a background in engineering project management.  | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received | No Response Received |
