	Rebecca Holland	Jenn McKnight	Scott Wood
1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	No Response Received	Jenn McKnight. LPOSD School Board Trustee zone 1. I don't know if I'm called to win, but I have been called to run.	No Response Received
2. How could your school district be improved? Please provide your top 2-3 ideas.	No Response Received	I will back families, I will respect citizens, and I will be fiscally responsible.	No Response Received
3. What is your educational philosophy and how do you plan to implement this philosophy as a member of the board of trustees?	No Response Received	We need strong academics. Social/emotional teaching belongs to the parents.	No Response Received
4. What role should "Critical Race Theory" have in the education of children?	No Response Received	Only what their parents would or wouldn't teach them at home.	No Response Received
5. Would you support adding diversity, equity, and inclusion to the school curriculum? Why or why not?	No Response Received	No.	No Response Received
6. What is your view on the growth of Charter Schools?	No Response Received	I think school choice is a good way to demand accountability and make educating more competitive.	No Response Received
7. Should children be allowed to access obscene materials through school libraries? Please base your answer on the federal definition of obscenity.	No Response Received	No, of course not. I will further add here, that there is a problem with students accessing pornography on the school issued chromebooks. The firewalls aren't working. This is unacceptable.	No Response Received

8. Do you support or oppose bathroom and locker room usage based on preferred gender identification? Why or why not?	No Response Received	No. Its common sense, its just too unsafe. It would also create an uncomfortable environment for the original user. This goes both ways. Boys need to be protected here too.	No Response Received
9. How should counselors work with parents to resolve issues with their children?	No Response Received	Respectfully.	No Response Received
10. What is your opinion on students being able to receive an abortion or change their gender without parental notification?	No Response Received	My opinion is that when someone tries to go around the loved ones of a child, it is with a predatory interest.	No Response Received
11. Do you support the 1619 project? Why or why not?	No Response Received	No. Agendizing history is a bad idea. It also seems to be creating new wounds on this generation, for monetary profit.	No Response Received
12. In what circumstances should students be able to receive mental health assistance without parental notification?	No Response Received	When the child is an orphan and has no family.	No Response Received
13. Who has the responsibility for the education of children?	No Response Received	The family.	No Response Received
14. What should the goal of education be?	No Response Received	As a board member, I answer to the people. My job is more about voicing the people's interests, and making sure the schools don't exceed their mandate.	No Response Received
15. Do you support or oppose the legalization of marijuana? Why or why not?	No Response Received	That's a tough one. I believe in a limited government. When we have freedom, the beauty of freewill can play out. I also don't want to be literally poisoned by others' drug use. I have never smoked pot. I cannot say that I would actively support it.	No Response Received
16. What is your background and why do you feel it qualifies you for this position?	No Response Received	My background is that I am a Christian and I am a mom. I am familiar with the board, and the schools. But most importantly, if my plans and values align with the voter, then I am fit to represent them. Zone 1 is a mostly conservative area, and I am the conservative candidate. I am ready to serve.	No Response Received
