

City of Wallace Mayor

Shauna Hillman

Chase Sanborn

1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	Shauna Hillman Mayor Wallace, Idaho	No Response Received
2. How could our city be improved? Please provide your top 2-3 ideas.	Communication with City Government Environmental Tourism Issues Community Unity	No Response Received
3. In your opinion, is growth in North Idaho being handled appropriately?	Continued growth in North Idaho requires continued conversation with developers, community and services. Open communication is usually the road to successful growth and development.	No Response Received
4. As cities face increasing costs to pay for city services including law enforcement, fire districts, schools and increased traffic due to increased home developments, what are your suggestions so that growth pays for itself?	Communication between the city services and the residents to provide useful and proper services for the cost of safety and health.  Constant communication with developers and residents to determine what are the values	No Response Received
5. What improvements should be made to the mayor's role in the planning and authorization of new developments?	The Mayor of Wallace could use the help of a qualified City Planner to help the developer and residents better use the services of the City in planning and projecting the future.	No Response Received
6. In your opinion, should any services currently provided by the city be cut, eliminated, or privatized?	The budget needs to be examined for the best cuts or changes to any service. At this point it is too early to answer this question.	No Response Received
7. Do you believe access to city managed water and sewer should be increased to rural communities, why or why not?	Does this question really apply to all rural communities?	No Response Received

	Shauna Hillman	Chase Sanborn
8. How do you plan on keeping a healthy reserve fund without increasing taxes?	We plan to examine the budget in fine detail to find the overspending and waste	No Response Received
9. What is your opinion on affordable housing? Is it something that the city should be pursuing?	Affordable housing is a necessity for a destination community. Workers need private space, residents need quiet neighborhoods. Good planning and communication can work towards housing and space.	No Response Received
10. All too often local residents feel that their public comment is not taken into consideration when decisions are made that directly affect their daily lives and their property values. What would you do differently to change the public's perception?	This City Council would be required to be "in the office". to hear from residents, voters, developers and visitors. Communication between the city officials and the public is a necessary tool.	No Response Received
11. What is your opinion on "Smart Cities" and how they apply to North Idaho?	It is in the best interest of our future to encourage "Smart Cities". Community growth requires we continue to measure our city emissions, sewer, water and technological services to better serve our residents and visitors.	No Response Received
12. Should the concept of "equitable outcome" be implemented as a part of the city council's decision-making process? Why or why not?	Fair and just results the acknowledge the different starting points and systemic barriers to ensure everyone has a fair Chane to succeed. A level playing field, leading to similar, positive results for diverse projects, individuals and the community	No Response Received
13. Is there anything in your personal, business, or career life that would be a conflict of interest in your ability to serve the people of this city?	no	No Response Received
14. What is your background and why do you feel it qualifies you for this position?	I have the ability to listen to people. I do not typically "jump" to conclusions.  I believe there is a bright future for the City of Historic Wallace. My focus is to work toward a community that is united in the future success of the community, the businesses and the environment.	No Response Received