

Republican Precinct Committeemen 403

	Debbie Loffman	Justin Schorzman
1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	My name is Debbie Loffman and I'm running for Precinct Committeeman. I'm running for Precinct Committeeman in my neighborhood to help elect excellent people to serve in our community, our city and our state.	No Response Received
2. Do you believe that the central committee should endorse candidates in primaries and non-partisan elections? Why or why not?	I believe in the rating and vetting process that the central committee does to help voters have a better understanding of the person running for office so they can make an informed decision of who to vote for. I went through that rating and vetting process, and it is very thorough. Other political affiliations should do the same for their voters.	No Response Received
3. How will you inform the people you represent about the goals and objectives of your central committee?	A Precinct Committeeman informs neighbors of upcoming voter information and those who are running for office. The role is representing neighbors by listening to them about the values that are most important to them, distributing helpful election material, encouraging neighbors to attend Townhall meetings and vote in elections. It's a role that gives neighbors a voice in who runs for office and local issues that may affect them.	No Response Received
4. What do you consider the most important qualities in a candidate for local office?	I support conservative values like limited government, individual liberty, and fiscal responsibility.	No Response Received
5. Do you believe your values accurately reflect the values of Kootenai County residents? How will you work to incorporate those values into the central committee?	I believe my values align with the values of Kootenai County residents because I listen to what is most important to people in my community. Their (and my) top priorities are: hard work, personal responsibility, common sense family values, helping our neighbors, freedom from government overreach and faith in God.	No Response Received
6. Becoming a precinct committeeman is the most direct way to influence your local party, shape its priorities and fight for the principles that built this nation. Are you willing to vote for these principles even when they are not popular? Please explain your answer.	In politics, we have to be careful to hold to truth even if it is not popular. In your question, you mention "principles that built this nation". America's biblical foundations shaped our nation's laws, culture, and desire for liberty. Scripture influenced leaders, informed public life, and guided the creation of documents like the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. Understanding these biblical roots helps us understand the principles that formed the backbone of America.	No Response Received
7. Meaningful change begins in our local elections. As precinct committeemen you serve as a link between the voters and your parties' leadership. What are two or three top priorities that you want to bring to the central committee?	These are the priorities of a precinct committeeman: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Visit with neighbors in our precinct to find out what is most important to them.</li> <li>• Distribute material to help in voting.</li> <li>• Encourage neighbors to vote in elections and attend Townhall meetings.</li> <li>• Be a helpful and good neighbor.</li> </ul>	No Response Received
8. Are you willing to hold party leaders and candidates accountable to stay focused on principle over compromise? How will you do this?	This is a good question. "Principle over compromise" means our deepest convictions should take priority over the desire to avoid conflict, even if that means rejecting a deal, policy, or action that would seem acceptable. The ability to hold to my faith and convictions even in persecution will show integrity and true belief. All of us will answer to God for our actions here on earth.	No Response Received
