

Republican Precinct Committeemen 409

	Dave Raglin	Anne Wigdahl Subia
1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	Dave Raglin, I am running for re-election for Precinct Committeeman, #409. and I am running because our Republican Party needs fresh, representative leadership at the grassroots level and to maintain the fight for those of us that have called North Idaho home for years. Coeur 'd Alene and North Idaho are not just where we live — it is where our family's roots run deep. My wife Heather is a fourth-generation North Idahoan, we have our business that employs good people right here in Coeur d' Alene. For too long, the current Kootenai County Republican Central Committee leadership has pushed a top-down approach that does not reflect the values or voices of everyday Republicans and North Idahoans in our precincts. Yes, it is time for change. Please vote for me May 19, 2026.	No Response Received
2. Do you believe that the central committee should endorse candidates in primaries and non-partisan elections? Why or why not?	No, I do not believe the Central Committee should endorse candidates in primaries and non-partisan races. Politics does not need to be in everything. When does it stop, our doctors, or grocery stores, what car we buy. Representing the people to help make a more perfect union, is the role of a representative. The constitution does not say you must be a Republican or Democrat. But a representative of the people.	No Response Received
3. How will you inform the people you represent about the goals and objectives of your central committee?	I have my email and website that has been up since I ran for election in 2024. Again, info@daveraglinforidaho.com and my website, www.daveraglinforidaho.com and my Facebook page and X page. I have communicated through email with voters and mailed at my expense, letters to keep voters informed.	No Response Received
4. What do you consider the most important qualities in a candidate for local office?	Someone that understands the landscape, a leader that listens to the people. Not hide behind Executive Sessions and say your a Private orginzation, that does not have to be transparent, which the current KCRCC leadership does. So a leader needs to always be "transparent" with everyone.	No Response Received
5. Do you believe your values accurately reflect the values of Kootenai County residents? How will you work to incorporate those values into the central committee?	As I said above, My wife Heather is a fourth-generation North Idahoan, we have our business that employs good people right here in Coeur d' Alene, and her family's stories are woven into this community. So, when we talk about protecting the traditions and values of Coeur 'd Alene and Kootenai County, that isn't politics to us — we are invested here and it's personal. You do not have to be born and raised here, you moved here years ago, knowing what our values are, neighborliness, hard work, our constitutional rights, including the Second Amendment, keeping taxes low, and fighting for limited government that stays out of our pocketbook, along with our religious beliefs and respect for this land.	No Response Received

6. Becoming a precinct committeeman is the most direct way to influence your local party, shape its priorities and fight for the principles that built this nation. Are you willing to vote for these principles even when they are not popular? Please explain your answer.	I fight for principals that shape our nation, 100% of the time and based on North Idahoans who came before me. We, or the current 27 KCRCC members that hold strong, do not go with the current leadership. But we go with conservative values and beliefs that hold dear to this City, County and State. Not the agenda of the few. We should be representing all!	No Response Received
7. Meaningful change begins in our local elections. As precinct committeemen you serve as a link between the voters and your parties' leadership. What are two or three top priorities that you want to bring to the central committee?	Putting our local, city, county and State Values First. Hold Public Meetings that lets voters participate. Educating Voters, regardless of who wins or loses, the ongoing battle is voter involvement.	No Response Received
8. Are you willing to hold party leaders and candidates accountable to stay focused on principle over compromise? How will you do this?	Absolutely focused on Principal than compromise. We started with 30 down to 26 and we have held our principals over and over, month after month. But we do not have the majority to make the dent. This election, we need good people that care about this community. For too long, the current Kootenai County Republican Central Committee leadership has pushed a top-down approach that does not reflect the values or voices of everyday Republicans and North Idahoans in our precincts. We need accountability more than ever this election.	No Response Received
