

Republican Precinct Committeemen 512

	Neko Caballero	Marc Eberlein
1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	No Response Received	No Response Received
2. Do you believe that the central committee should endorse candidates in primaries and non-partisan elections? Why or why not?	No Response Received	No Response Received
3. How will you inform the people you represent about the goals and objectives of your central committee?	No Response Received	No Response Received
4. What do you consider the most important qualities in a candidate for local office?	No Response Received	No Response Received
5. Do you believe your values accurately reflect the values of Kootenai County residents? How will you work to incorporate those values into the central committee?	No Response Received	No Response Received
6. Becoming a precinct committeeman is the most direct way to influence your local party, shape its priorities and fight for the principles that built this nation. Are you willing to vote for these principles even when they are not popular? Please explain your answer.	No Response Received	No Response Received
7. Meaningful change begins in our local elections. As precinct committeemen you serve as a link between the voters and your parties' leadership. What are two or three top priorities that you want to bring to the central committee?	No Response Received	No Response Received
8. Are you willing to hold party leaders and candidates accountable to stay focused on principle over compromise? How will you do this?	No Response Received	No Response Received