

Republican Precinct Committeemen 516

	David Fry	Aaron Plew	Dan Redline
1. What is your name, what office are you running for and why are you running for this position?	My name is David Fry, and I am running for Precinct Committeeman for Precinct #516. I am running to hold the Republican Party accountable to true Christian and conservative values, firmly rooted in the principles of the Idaho Constitution. In our precinct I will protect our God-given freedoms, strengthen grassroots leadership, build real community with my neighbors, keep you informed on what is really happening in local government, and demand full transparency with no more backroom deals. This is not about politics as usual. It is about standing shoulder-to-shoulder with you to defend life, liberty, and our constitutional rights, never as a yes-man or simply going with the flow.	No Response Received	No Response Received
2. Do you believe that the central committee should endorse candidates in primaries and non-partisan elections? Why or why not?	Yes, I believe the Central Committee should endorse candidates, but only when it is done correctly and the vetting process is fully trustworthy. When the committee acts as true watchmen for our community, it helps ensure we elect leaders who will uphold Christian values and conservative principles. This only works, if we can trust the central committee members themselves. That trust begins at the precinct level. By electing honest, conviction-driven precinct committeemen who refuse to be yes-men or simply go with the flow out of convenience. We need to build a central committee that actually protects our values instead of compromising them. Without that foundation of integrity, accountability, and transparency endorsements become a tool for secret meetings and a few decision makers.	No Response Received	No Response Received
3. How will you inform the people you represent about the goals and objectives of your central committee?	I will engage and communicate with voters personally and consistently because real leadership starts with real relationships, not politics as usual. I will knock on doors throughout our precinct to listen to your concerns and build genuine connections with my neighbors, deliver honest regular updates via email, postfall516 X account and postfalls516.com about what is really happening in local government and the Republican Party with no spin and no secrets, demand full transparency. This is not about checking boxes it's about standing shoulder to shoulder with you to protect Christian values and God-given freedoms. Either we stand unyieldingly on the principles of the Idaho Constitution, or we will slide into godless liberalism on one side and dangerous extremism on the other.	No Response Received	No Response Received
4. What do you consider the most important qualities in a candidate for local office?	The most important qualities for a candidate are integrity, honesty, strong personal convictions, patience, and fortitude. A great candidate stands firmly on Christian values and holds the Republican Party and the central committee strictly accountable with no compromise.	No Response Received	No Response Received
5. Do you believe your values accurately reflect the values of Kootenai County residents? How will you work to incorporate those values into the central committee?	Yes, I believe my values strongly reflect those of the vast majority of Kootenai County residents. Most families here want to honor God, protect life and liberty, cherish strong traditional families, and support limited constitutional government. This is exactly why I moved to Post Falls to raise my family in this environment of faith and freedom. As Precinct Committeeman for #516, I will bring these values into the Central Committee by serving as a consistent, principled voice.	No Response Received	No Response Received

	David Fry	Aaron Plew	Dan Redline
6. Becoming a precinct committeeman is the most direct way to influence your local party, shape its priorities and fight for the principles that built this nation. Are you willing to vote for these principles even when they are not popular? Please explain your answer.	Yes, I am absolutely willing to vote for these principles even when they are not popular. My votes will always be guided by honesty and strong personal convictions, not by what is politically convenient or popular at the moment. I will fight boldly for life, liberty, our God-given freedoms, and true conservative values with integrity, patience, and fortitude. The principles that built this nation are not up for negotiation. If I have to stand alone to defend Christian values and constitutional government, I will do it. That is the only way to truly shape the party and protect our community.	No Response Received	No Response Received
7. Meaningful change begins in our local elections. As precinct committeemen you serve as a link between the voters and your parties' leadership. What are two or three top priorities that you want to bring to the central committee?	My top three priorities as Precinct Committeeman for #516 are: Hold the Republican Party strictly accountable to true Christian and conservative values, firmly rooted in the principles of the Idaho Constitution with no compromise. Demand full transparency and integrity in all committee decisions and candidate endorsements ending secret meetings only a few people are allowed to attend. Strengthen real grassroots leadership so the actual voices and values of Kootenai County families are heard and represented at the county level.	No Response Received	No Response Received
8. Are you willing to hold party leaders and candidates accountable to stay focused on principle over compromise? How will you do this?	Yes, I am fully committed to holding party leaders and candidates accountable and keeping them laser-focused on principle rather than political compromise. I will do this by voting my deepest convictions every time, speaking out clearly when I see any drift away from conservative values, and only backing candidates who have proven they will defend life, liberty, freedom, and the Idaho Constitution. I will never quietly go along just to keep the peace. Instead, I will be a steady, respectful voice for real integrity inside the Central Committee while keeping the voters in my precinct fully informed and engaged so they can help hold leadership responsible. This is how we stay true to our Christian foundation and the values that built our community.	No Response Received	No Response Received